

Himley Hall

18th century stately home

Bringing true romance to your wedding

*“We had our wedding here and couldn't praise them enough... from the very first appointment the service we received was excellent
...They listened to everything we wanted and made sure the whole experience was memorable...5**”*

Why not consider the newly modernised historic venue of Himley Hall for your wedding or civil ceremony?

Glamour and old-school romance have always been associated with Himley Hall, former home of the Earls of Dudley. In 1934, The Duke and Duchess of Kent honeymooned here and in 1936, The Prince of Wales (later Edward VIII) and Wallis Simpson spent time socialising here with the Earl. Other famous guests include Sir Winston Churchill and Charlie Chaplin, to name but two.

Imagine your wedding photographs taken in and around this 18 century, Grade II* Palladian style stately home, staged to take advantage of the amazing frontage, the grand 180 acres of Capability Brown gardens including lake, or within our newly restyled wedding rooms.

When you book with us you will enjoy exclusive use of the venue and receive first class service from our dedicated wedding planning team who will be on hand every step of the way.
